AUBURN TIGERS TAKE THE STATE CHAMPIONSHIP

By taking two games from Alabama, in the prettiest series of games witnessed in this neck of the woods for many moons, Auburn won the State championship. The games were well played and while juicy errors outcropped at times yet at all times there was something doing. The enthusiasm of the Auburn supporters was of the kind that counts. No matter whether we were winning or losing the boys were "Johnny on the Spot" with the "racket." The scene, when Stanly, prized open the hit-bag and abstracted therefrom a fat binglet, thus breaking up the game, baffles description. The campus was covered with students, frenzied with joy who carried the successful warriors from the field in triumph, not forgetting to give their worthy foe men, cheers.

A very noticeable feature of the game was the absence of wrangling. Mr. Stultz, of the Montgomery professionals, officiated as judge of play and gave satisfaction throughout the entire three games.

Alabama, 3; Auburn, 2.

The prettiest game of ball seen on our campus in many years was the first of the series in which Auburn lost the first, but won the last two games. The game abounded in sensational plays, Hall and Skinner taking the lead.

Auburn did not hit the ball as well as she had been doing, the men seemed to let the good ones go and take a swing at the bad ones. Though Alabama did have a little the best of the batting, yet the game we put up is one that we should be proud of, for things went Alabama's way in the first and they scored three runs.

In the second inning we seemed to pull up a little. Steele landed safe for three bases. Neill bunted and Steele scored. In the seventh, Neill hit the sphere for a home run. This made the score 3 to 2. Nothing else doing in the run-getting line.

First Inning. Barnes fails to connect. Caffey gets a single. Smith walks to first. Cummings hits safe and Caffey and Smith gallop home. Redden sacrifices to third, advancing Cummins to second. Chamberlain connects for a single, scoring Cummins. Moody retires the side with a fly to Stanley.

Skinner swings three times and sits down. Hall is thrown out by Barnes and Lurton knocks a fly to Caffey.

Second Inning. Harris knocks a ground ball to Skinner, which looks like a hit. But Geo. is there with the goods and throws him out at first. Eddington out on a ground ball to second base. Barnes tries Blanton, but is thrown out.

Randle strikes out. Steele raps out a three bagger. Neill sacrifices, bringing Steele home. Stanley knocks an easy one to Eddington and is thrown out at first.

Third Inning. Caffey is thrown out by Blanton at first. Smith knocks a foul fly to Lurton. Cummins again gets a hit, but Redden retires the side by striking out.

Blanton is out on a high foul fly to Harris. Weems gets a neat little single. Skinner bunts but Weems is thrown out at second. Skinner tries to steal second, but is caught.

Fourth Inning. Chamberlain is out on a fly to center. Moody does the same on a fly to "Dot leedle Nobby Hall" stationed on second base. Harris never does find where the ball is.

Hall is thrown out by Barnes. Lurton out on first and Randle out on a fly to center.

Fifth Inning. Eddington is thrown out by Weems. Barnes out at first and Caffey on a fly to first.

Steele knocks a ground ball to Caffey, out at first. Neill is hit by pitcher and walks to first. Stanley sacrifices, advancing Neill to second. Blanton is hit by pitcher and walks to first. Weems retires the side by a ground ball to Eddington.

Sixth Inning. Smith knocks a fly to second. Cummins gets to first on an error. Redden flies out to left and Moody duplicates to center.

Skinner out at first. Hall out on foul fly to Harris, and Randle out on ground ball to Caffey.

Seventh Inning. Moody connects neatly for what should have been a hit but again "Dot leedle Nooby" Hall runs and reaches backward for the sphere and grasps it safely in his "leedle" hands. Harris gets a hit. Eddington gets to first on Blanton's error. Barnes strikes out, and Caffey is thrown out by Hall.

Randle flies out to second, Steele to Eddington. Neill gets busy and knocks the ball over the dump for a home run. Stanley knocks one to pitcher and is out at first.

Eighth Inning. Smith flies out to Hall. Cummins to Skinner and Redden to Stanley.

Blanton is thrown out by Eddington, Weems by Smith and Skinner by Smith.

Ninth Inning. Chamberlain gets a hit. Moody is out on fly to Skinner, Harris is out on fly to Stanley. Eddington out on ground ball to Skinner.

Hall is hit by pitcher and walks. Lurton thrown out by Smith. Randle flies out to Caffey and Steele stops the game by striking out.

Summary—Struck out by Weems, 4; by Eddington, 4. Home run, Neill. Three base hits, Steele. Two base hits, Cummins. Double plays, Harris to Moody. Passed balls, Lurton. Base on balls off Weems, 1. Hit by pitched ball by Eddington, 3. Umpire, Stultz.

Auburn, 4; Alabama, 3.

Sanders went up in the air and lost his game by 12 passes to first. May also was a little free, giving four bases on balls. May pitched a beautiful game of ball, despite the many errors which Auburn made.

Steele again loomed up in the hitting gang with a home run, bringing in an extra run. The third inning was decidedly ours. "Nubby" got to first on a free pass by Sanders. He stole second. Lurton rapped out a two base hit. Steele got in a home run. This gave us 3 runs to start the game with and Alabama couldn't overcome the lead.

Auburn seemed to delight in stealing bases for they latched on to eight during their half of the ninth inning. Sanders' delivery was slow and Harris could not throw. The lads in Orange and Blue took every opportunity and made them good. Lurton's arm was excellent. Only one man tried to steal and he was thrown out.

One of the "niftiest" doubles seen here was made in the fourth when Moody was on second. Harris knocked a line drive to Burgess, almost a hit, but the mighty mit was in the way and the mighty arm was good for a quick throw to second to Skinner, forcing Moody out.

First Inning. May gives four balls to Barnes. Caffey fails to connect. Smith is thrown out by Hall. Cummins gets to first on Skinner's error, and Barnes walks home. Redden retires the side by a ground ball to Skinner.

Skinner is hit by pitcher. Hall gets his base on balls. Lurton strikes out. Randle knocks a high fly to Eddington. Steele gets his base on balls. Skinner tries to steal home, but is thrown out.

Second Inning. Chamberlain gets to first on an error of Skinner's. Moody flies out to Blanton. Harris does the same to Randle. Sanders knocks an easy one to May and is thrown out at first.

Neill knocks a fly to short. Burgess gets his base on balls. Blanton is hit by pitcher. May strikes out and Skinner retires the side by a ball to third, leaving Burgess on third and Blanton on second.

Third Inning. Barnes walks. Caffey gets to first, but Barnes is put out at second. Smith lands at first on an error of Skinner's and Caffey scores. Cummins lands safe at first. Redden knocks a foul fly to Burgess. Chamberlain knocks a ground ball to Blanton. Three men out.

Hall gets his base on balls. Next he steals second. Lurton raps out a two base hit, scoring Hall. Randle knocks a ground ball to second and is thrown out at first. Steele gets a home run, bringing in Lurton. Neill knocks a foul fly to Moody and Burgess is thrown out by Caffey.

Fourth Inning. Moody gets a neat little single. Harris knocks a line drive to Burgess, who throws Moody out at second. Sanders gets to first on Neill's error. Barnes knocks a fly to Skinner. Three men down.

Blanton gets to first on Barnes' error. May strikes out. Skinner same, Hall same. Blanton is left on third.

Fifth Inning. Caffey is out at first. Smith gets a scratch hit. He tries to steal second, but is thrown out. Cummins is thrown out by Blanton.

Lurton gets his base on balls. Randle hits to short but is thrown out at first. Lurton in the meantime having gotten to third by stealing bases. Steele strikes out. Lurton comes home on a passed ball. Burgess flies out to center.

Sixth Inning. Redden strikes out. Chamberlain gets a base hit. Moody walks. Harris walks and Sanders gets his base on balls forcing Chamberlain in home. Barnes hits to pitcher and Moody is caught out at home. Caffey knocks a fly ball to Randle and all danger is passed.

Blanton strikes out. May is thrown out from short. Skinner is hit by pitched ball, but is thrown out at second.

Seventh Inning. Smith is out on foul fly to Burgess. Cummins out on foul fly to Lurton and Redden out on line drive to Hall.

Hall is hit by pitched ball. Lurton knocks a fly ball to Caffey. Randle knocks a fly to left and Skinner is thrown out at second.

Eighth Inning. Chamberlain is out on foul fly caught by Blanton. Moody out on ground ball to first and Harris makes it three out by a ground ball to Blanton.

Steele gets his base on balls. Neill sacrifices, advancing Steele to second. Burgess is hit by pitcher. Blanton hits to second. Steele tries to reach home, but is put out in a chase. Burgess is caught out at third and May flies out to short.

Ninth Inning. Sanders strikes out. Barnes doesn't connect and Caffey ends it by a ground ball to Burgess.

What's the matter with Auburn?
What's the matter with Alabama?
We're both O. K.

After the exciting game of last Saturday it took two days for the dust to settle. Never in the history of baseball was such a demonstration of college loyalty shown. Not that the rooting at the other games wasn't the best in years, but on the third day the climax was reached. Every boy accompanied by a noise maker of some variety was out pulling for Mike Donahue's tigers.

While things pleasant to think of are under discussion, it is entirely appropriate that we say something of the Alabama team and the few loyal supporters that accompanied them. Never before have we had the pleasure to have with us such a lot of jolly good fellows. While they may have lost two games yet the friends they gained would out number the games, fifty to one. So here's to old Alabama, her team and her supporters.

The last issue of the Crimson and White contains several articles that it does us much good to read and think over. We only wish we had gotten out an issue first so that we could have said pleasant things first. Now since they have been said we can only say that, we are sure that Auburn and Tuscaloosa have entered into an era of good feeling and fellowship, as properly becomes sister colleges of this great state of ours. Petty strifes, which sad to say have marred our athletic relations of the past are relegated to the back shelf and instead we have a clean friendly rivalry which will continue as long as a wearer of the Crimson and White shouts his varsity yell in answer to the Orange and Blue's Rak-e-te-yak.

This year has been a banner one with Auburn. Outside of the fact that the attendance, etc., is larger than usual, we have done things in the athletics line that make us proud that we are wearers of the Orange and Blue.

We did great stunts in the football line. From appearances we will duplicate it in baseball. We are champions of the state in both departments of sport. Besides our athletic triumphs there are others that are more becoming to the student proper. As we go to press the glad news comes that for the third consecutive time a representative of Auburn has won the Cox medal for oratory. Mr. Walter R. Samford '05 who represented Auburn, has won many honors by his oratory, but when he wrestled from the other competitors the medal, thereby adding to the lustre of Auburn's name we feel as if we ought to pat him on the back and say "well done thou brilliant son of Auburn."

Alabama has a team that she should, and if we may judge by what we hear is proud of. Never were two teams so evenly matched and never did two teams battle so eagerly for their colleges. Alabama's pluck on the diamond is too well known to comment upon and it was only by some tall hustling that Auburn was enabled to bear off the laurels.

SOMETHING NEW.

On Saturday night after the game, a jolly party celebrated the victory in an entirely original manner. After giving the Alabama team a good send off they visited the various professors and exacted a speech from each. After visiting the members of the faculty, they finally cornered Coach Donahue, who made a most eloquent speech. The party finally dispersed when Colonel Patrick wanted to make an individual speech to each young lady.

Among the young ladies in the party were, Misses Hollifield, Anderson, Dowdell, Harvey, Shoaff of Montgomery, Paterson of Montgomery, Armstrong of Red Bank, N. J.

EDUCATION THE BEST GIFT.

Under the above caption The Chattanooga Weekly Press publishes the following able editorial:

"After a man passes forty, his chief concern, if he be a parent, is for his children. For them he plans and toils and labors. His ambition is for them rather than for himself.

"And yet, many parents forget or seem to overlook the fact, that the best possible gift which they can bestow upon their children is a good education.

"In nine cases out of ten every dollar left to the young man by his parents is a hindrance rather than a help, a curse rather than a blessing.

"Leave your boy with a sound education by all means. See that he is properly trained mentally, morally and physically, and then turn him loose to 'paddle his own canoe.' If he cannot succeed, after being thus equipped, he does not deserve success.

"Let him 'hoe his own row,' but see that he is prepared to hold his own with all competitors, by having a sound and well trained mind in a sound and well trained body.

"Riches take wings. Inherited money is an exceedingly doubtful good. As a general rule it enervates, corrupts, and finally downs its possessor.

"Ignorance is a terrible handicap. Combined with poverty it is indeed 'the curse of God.'

"Wealth without knowledge is worthless. In this age, more than any age which the world has ever seen, knowledge is truly 'the wing wherewith we fly to heaven.'

"A hundred dollars spent for the higher education of the boy while he is in his teens, is worth far more to him than ten thousand dollars given to him as an inheritance after he reaches his majority.

"The best schools and colleges are now accessible at moderate cost. During the coming summer the location and advantages of many of these will be set forth in the advertising columns of the press, and we commend all such to the careful consideration of those parents whose children are in need of the educational advantages which they afford.

"Every boy and girl is entitled to a fair start and a fair chance in the race of life, and the parents who suffer their sons and daughters to grow up in ignorance, commit a great and irreparable crime, both against the State and against the victims of such ignorance for whose existence they are responsible."
